Home Bank Donates Monies to Johnson County Charities

Martinsville, Indiana, March 13, 2017--- Home Bank SB recently presented three community gifts totaling over $41,000 in Johnson County. Spectrum Ministries, Greenwood Community Library, and Youth Connections were those awarded.

Youth Connections was the recipient of a gift of $13,000. This organization has been serving youth in Morgan and Johnson counties since 1976. Youth Connections provides dynamic programs and services that promote family support and positive youth development. In addition to outreach and developmental programming, they also work with children whose families are in crisis. Funds will be used for computer equipment, as well as support for their many programs for kids.

Spectrum Ministries, founded in 1970 in Greenwood and by Tom and Pam Bandy, works with youth at their facility in Greenwood. Focusing on students in grades 6 through 12, the organization supports development for youth through service to others. .

A final gift of $15,000 was presented to the Greenwood Public Library in conjunction with the organization's 100th anniversary celebration. . Home Bank SB's gift will help fund a remodel of the children and family play space in the Children's Dept. Home Bank SB was chartered in 1890 as a mutual institution which essentially means that it is owned by its depositors. Without private ownership or stockholders, the bank's profits are allocated entirely to its capital reserves, resulting in greater fiscal strength and resources for community support.
